MAYOR DIRECTS STAFF TO LOOK INTO I-25 CORRIDOR PROPERTIES

LAS VEGAS, NM – Las Vegas Mayor Tony E. Marquez Jr. has directed city staff to aggressively look into properties along the I-25 corridor that violate city codes and ordinances. City staff is looking at all properties in this area for potential violations in an effort to beautify Las Vegas.

“We are actively looking to beautify Las Vegas,” Mayor Marquez said. “If properties along this corridor violate codes and ordinances it provides a negative image on our city.”

There are many beautification efforts being done within the city including the MainStreet Project.
